

Newsletter

Friday 2nd February 2018

Welcome to our twice termly Hanham Primary Federation (HPF) newsletter. This newsletter is a chance for both schools (Samuel White's Infant School and Hanham Abbots Junior School) to share their news and provide HPF (Hanham Primary Federation) updates.

Dear Parents/Carers,

On behalf of Hanham Primary Federation, I am writing to inform you that on Thursday 1st March, the Federation will be celebrating World Book Day by having a day focusing on the love of reading.

The theme for the day will be Fantasy and Fun.

Children (and staff!) are invited to come to school on the day dressed as their favourite book character from the genre above. We will be putting a range of books and costume ideas on the website if anyone would like some ideas.

On the day, the children will take part in a wide range of activities which will feed into a grand finale. The children across the Federation will work together in mixed year groups to produce a story by creating both the text and the illustrations.

The children will also have the opportunity to look at the costumes across the whole Federation and prizes will be given for the best costumes.

Kind regards,

Miss Christopher
Infant Headteacher

Twitter

Please note that both schools Twitter feeds are now linked to the relevant school website so you will be able to see your children enjoying their wonderful learning in both places.

Don't forget to get your creative heads on over the holiday and try your hand at writing a story in just 500 words. To enter the BBC2 competition you must submit your story to them by 22nd February. We are also holding a competition in school, so we look forward to seeing your creative works next term.

Do you have a child who starts school in September 2018?
